

PRESIDENT RETURNS AND PREPARES TO CLOSE WHITE HOUSE

Chief Executive and Party Expect to Leave for Shadow Lawn Thursday.

ADJOURNMENT TO FIX DAY

Entire White House Staff is Ready to Leave for Summer Capital.

President Wilson returned to Washington at 2 o'clock this afternoon from Hodgenville, Ky., where yesterday he accepted on behalf of the Government the deed to Lincoln's birthplace. By Thursday, if Congress adjourns on or before that day, the President will leave for the summer capital at Shadow Lawn, where he will probably make his headquarters until after election.

Many members of Congress, preparing to leave for home, have requested an opportunity to call on him in the next few days for the purpose of saying good-bye. No important conferences are scheduled, however.

This afternoon, it is probable he will sign again the railroad eight-hour-day bill, in order that there can be no question raised as to the legality of his action in having first signed the bill on Sunday.

May Go to Capitol.
Tomorrow he will probably spend at the Capitol attaching his signature to bills.

Friday evening the President is scheduled to make an address before the annual convention of the National American Woman Suffrage Association at Atlantic City. It is regarded as likely that he will motor to Atlantic City from Shadow Lawn and return to the summer capital by train.

September 20 he will speak before the National Underwriters' Convention at St. Louis and on September 25 will address the National Grain Dealers' Association at Baltimore.

To Stay at Shadow Lawn.
Except for these engagements the President will spend the next two months at Shadow Lawn, receiving delegations of Democrats from various States and keeping in touch with the National Democratic headquarters at New York.

It is expected that while the President will not go on any stumping tours, he will direct the campaign personally from Shadow Lawn.

All is in readiness for transfer of the executive offices from the White House to Ashburn, Pa. On Tuesday, that the President leaves, the entire staff will leave with him. Secretary Clegg has engaged a cottage at Ashburn Park. His family is already there.

White House Party to Go.
Mrs. Wilson, who accompanied the President to Kentucky will remain with him here until he leaves for Shadow Lawn. Miss Helen Woodrow Bones, the President's cousin; the Misses Smith, of New Orleans; Dr. Cary T. Grayson, U. S. N., the President's physician; and Mrs. Grayson will also go to the summer capital. Miss Margaret Wilson will also spend part of the fall with her father, and from present indications the summer capital social season will be a lively one.

FUNERAL RITES FOR CAPITAL RESIDENTS

Places and Times of Services Arranged by Bereaved Families.

Harvey S. Irwin.
Funeral services for Harvey S. Irwin, former Congressman from Kentucky, and prominent in Christian Endeavor activities, who died Sunday in the Presbyterian Hospital at Vienna, Va., will be held at Vienna today at 2:30 o'clock. Tomorrow the body will be brought to Washington for cremation at the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church, under auspices of the Temperance Lodge, No. 32, F. A. A. M., of which he was a member. Mr. Irwin was born in 1844 in Ohio. He is survived by his wife.

Mrs. Frances A. Berger.
Funeral services for Mrs. Frances A. Berger, who died Monday, will be held at her late residence, 1319 Delaware place northwest, tomorrow at 2:30 o'clock. Interment will be private.

Mrs. Mary A. Pettit.
Funeral services for Mrs. Mary A. Pettit, who died yesterday, will be held at her late residence, 912 E Street southeast, tomorrow at 2 o'clock.

ANACOSTIA.
About 3,000 persons who attended the annual picnic at the German Orphan Asylum yesterday afternoon were treated to an unique spectacle. Oscar W. Priel, superintendent of the institution, has made a good-sized airship, large enough for one of the boys to ride in. Yesterday Nathan Beavers, dressed as Kaiser Wilhelm, descended in this ship from a large tree, and was greeted by Edward Winkler, dressed as Uncle Sam. At the close, Mary Hagerman, representing "Peace," released a number of white doves.

The affair was in charge of the board of directors and Ladies' Aid Society, the latter organization serving an old-fashioned German supper. At the close of the supper dancing concluded the program. Mrs. Ruppert had charge of the dining room and Philip Dittus was chairman of the committee on arrangements.

Several hundred persons went to Oxon Hill, Md., yesterday afternoon to attend the annual tournament and ball under the direction of St. Ignace Church, a branch of St. Teresa's.

The Modern Women of the World of Allentown, Md., arranged for an entertainment on the evening of September 12. Dr. J. W. Southern and H. H. Millard will be the speakers.

Anacostia Lodge, No. 21, F. A. A. M., omitted its regular meeting last night on account of the holiday.

A general holiday was declared yesterday at the Government Hospital for the Insane.

The children of the Episcopal Home for Children, now at the summer home at Colonial Beach, expect to return to their winter quarters at the head of Talbot street on the 14th of this month.

Compensation Law Passes Congress

Half Million Government Employees Affected. Bill Ready for President's Signature.

The Senate and House celebrated Labor Day by completing the Workmen's Compensation law, affecting between 400,000 and 500,000 government employees.

The President will sign the bill on his return to Washington today. The Senate and House spent less than ten seconds agreeing to the conference report.

The law provides compensation for the widow of any federal employee killed in course of duty. It also gives two-thirds pay for any employee injured on duty. If the injury is permanent the compensation continues for life, and on death of the employee the widow receives a death benefit.

MARYLAND TROOPS PARADE ON BORDER

General Gaither Commands Division of U. S. Army at Eagle Pass, Tex.

EAGLE PASS, Tex., Sept. 5.—With General Gaither, head of its militia, commanding, and the First Regiment leading a parade in which more than 1,000 men took part, Maryland held the celebration here yesterday.

Besides the several Maryland units, the parade was composed of two regiments of Kansas Infantry, the First Vermont and the Third and Thirtieth United States Infantry, artillery, cavalry, machine gun companies, the engineer corps, the pontoon bridge division, the auto truck division, and the hospital corps.

The Maryland boys were quite proud of the honor conferred upon their commanding officer. For the first time in his life General Gaither commanded a division of the United States army.

Company M, of Annapolis, headed the parade and as the procession passed in review before Gen. Frederick Siby, U. S. A., the commander at Eagle Pass, and General Gaither, the First Maryland Band played "Maryland, My Maryland."

Colonel Jones and staff and the First and Second Battalions of the Fourth Maryland Regiment reached Chicago early this morning and are expected to leave for Laurel, Md., late tomorrow afternoon. The Third Battalion, having been delayed at Eagle Pass, will not get in until Thursday. The Fourth will remain in camp at Laurel until the other Maryland units return from the border.

Capital Boy Wins GIBBONS SCHOLARSHIP
Malcolm Turton Captures St. John's College Prize.

In an open competitive examination, Malcolm Turton, fourteen years of age, of 1007 K street, won the Cardinal Gibbons scholarship at St. John's College. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Turton. Turton was a student at St. Patrick's Academy.

In the examinations, he stood first on a list of about sixty contestants, representing the public, private, and parochial schools in and around Washington. The scholarship is for four years. It was established by the Cardinal in honor of the Golden Jubilee of St. John's College, of which he is the patron. Turton's average was 84.

Indications point to a most successful year, those in charge at the school say. Already the enrollment exceeds that of any previous year. Practically every parish in and around Washington is represented in the roster for this year.

School activities will be resumed immediately upon the opening of school. The cadet corps will be reorganized September 12.

PROBLEMS OF WAR ARE TAKEN UP BY DISTRICT SOLDIERS

First and Second Battalions Fail to Find Trenches of Third's Detachment.

TAKE OPPOSITE COURSES

Completely concealed in a freshly dug trench "somewhere in Virginia" 300 men, comprising the third battalion of the Third Regiment, District National Guard, waited for four hours today while men of the first and second battalions scoured the surrounding country intent on locating and driving their comrades from their point of vantage.

But so skillful had Major Wallace McCathran, in charge of the Third battalion, been in picking out a suitable position for entrenching his forces, the first and second battalions, commanded by Lieut. Col. Antonio Stephan, searched in vain and returned to camp toward noon, dusty, tired and disappointed.

A short while after the first and second battalions marched in radiant over their tactical victory.

Conduct Trench Problem.
The maneuvers of the Third Infantry today were one of a series of trench problems which have been conducted during the past two weeks at the mobilization camp. While one battalion marched out of camp and dug a trench, the other two start in the opposite direction. After a suitable time limit has been allowed they follow in the direction taken by the first battalion, the problem being to locate and drive the enemy from the trench.

While the Third Infantry worked at its problem the troops of cavalry, under command of Capt. J. H. Washburn, executed the movements of close order mounted drill on the Fort Myer parade ground.

Battery A, of the Field Artillery, was drilled in the movements of placing the field pieces in position, unlimbering, aiming, and theoretically firing at an invisible enemy.

According to statements given by officers of the Third Regiment the District National Guard at the mobilization camp is practically equipped, the only things lacking being sweaters, which are now on hand, and will be issued in a few days, and blacksmith supplies consisting of hammers, hammershoes and anvils.

Issued on Border.
This latter equipment, it is thought will be issued on the border, as the material is on hand there, and probably will be received along with the horses.

The oft-deferred payday for the District soldiers has been postponed again. The regulars stationed at Fort Myer will be paid tomorrow, and although it was stated that the militiamen might also receive their August pay tomorrow afternoon, it has, heretofore, been the custom to pay the local citizen soldiers on the day following payday for the Fort Myer regulars. Thursday morning is therefore the definite time allotted for the paying of the militiamen.

Mistakes in making up the payroll is given as the reason for the delay. The regulars making up the payroll are a large number of discharges and new enlistments make the work of "fixing up" the payroll very difficult.

Saturday afternoon has been decided upon as the date for the field day to be held by the militiamen on the Fort Myer parade grounds. Besides the foot races, hurdling, jumping and drill contests scheduled to take place, there will be a mule riding exhibition. The latter event will feature the program. The tubbiness and cunning of the army mule are historic and the scenes resulting from attempts to make the animal show off are sure to furnish amusement to the spectators.

SENATE STRIKES AT BRITISH TRADE WAR

Empowers President to Retaliate Against Boycotts and Blacklists.

In the expectation the revenue bill would be put through before night. Adjournment of the session Thursday was still the hope of Senate leaders today. Complications are possible and some predict adjournment will be delayed until Friday. On the other hand, the Senate might wait to drive through the business and quit Wednesday night.

Revenue Bill Will Pass.
The revenue bill will be passed by the Senate in the course of the day. This is considered assured unless there is unforeseen debate. Senate leaders predict it will pass today. It will take a day and a night in conference, according to Senator Simmons.

Just how much time will be taken in the effort of Senator Owen to force passage of the corrupt practices bill and the effort of Senator Smith to force passage of the immigration bill, is not clear and can be determined only by developments.

The conference report on the general deficiency bill is not out of the way and may delay adjournment for a day or so. Numerous aids and ends remain to be cleared up. Among them are several District matters. The take auction bill for the District, it has been promised, will be passed.

Senators and House members are already leaving the city and many plan to go Thursday and Friday, and are making reservations and saying they will go whether the session is ended or not.

Nineteen Entries For Novice Swim
Young Men and Boys Will Compete in First Annual Swimming Club Meet.

Nineteen swimmers will compete tomorrow evening in the first annual novice swim for men and boys, residents of the District, who have never taken part in the Washington Swimming Club's annual long distance race.

Major Raymond Pullman will be honorary referee. G. R. Dickson will be referee. He will be assisted by Carl Krieth. F. J. Brunner will act as starter and the judges will be E. C. Hamman, W. L. Crane and Irving Zirple.

The Industrial Home School will have the following representatives in the race: Albert Harvey, Sam Weinberg, Charles Jourdan, Charles Gould, Lloyd Cross, Donald Brewer, Ellis Reilly, Frank Cavanaugh, and Clifford Proctor. Alfred Bill will represent Rosedale playground; R. N. Saunders, the Potomac Boat Club; John G. Conry, Technical High School; and Frederick and Leonard Schenkel, Camp High Light.

The unattached entries are: J. R. Neate, Fred Fankhauser, William H. Saylor, James F. Home and Lawrence Proctor.

ALLEGES DISPLEASED WITH SHIPPING BILL

Diplomat Hints That Trade War With U. S. May Follow Recent Measures.

The allied governments are distinctly displeased with retaliation clauses in the shipping bill recently passed by Congress and the revenue bill, soon to be passed. Certain representatives of the allies in Washington today were talking of counter retaliation.

Congress acted within its right, said one diplomat, but he suggested that the course taken might be interpreted as an unfriendly act, calling for similar action on the part of the "offended" governments. A trade war between the United States and the entente allies might be the consequence, he said.

He declared 45 per cent of the foreign trade of the United States is with the British Empire and said this commerce might be lost if such a war developed.

The diplomat in question professed to see in the passing of the two retaliatory measures evidence of growing pro-Germanism in the United States. In furtherance of this thought, attention was called to the fact that the Congress had passed any of the legislation formed by the Justice Department for more drastic action against aliens who use the United States as a base for plotting against the government.

It was even intimated the allies might have large claims for damages against this country for not having prevented measures of alleged violation of American neutrality, which have worked harm to the interests of the allies.

The clause in the revenue bill to which exception is taken is that providing that during the course of a war in which the United States is not concerned, if any nation forbids importation of any American products not injurious to health or morals, the President may restrict or prohibit importation of similar or other articles from the offending country.

EXECUTED SPY WAS A FRENCH WOMAN

PARIS, Sept. 5.—In view of recent German comment on the execution at Marseilles recently as a spy of Felice Pfaff, certain details of the case were made known authoritatively here today.

The statement that the woman was a German is denied, and it was said that the companion of her case with that of Edith Castel, the British nurse who was put to death by the Germans at Brussels, was unwarranted.

According to this information, Felice Pfaff was a French woman, born at Nancy in 1890. She went to Metz in 1914 and later received permission to visit her mother in Belgium.

She spent three weeks in Paris and the reported results to Germans who admitted, paid her 5,000 francs to undertake another mission. She was caught in the act of spying at Marseilles and admitted she had been commissioned to gather military information. On July 10 she was unanimously condemned to death by a court-martial.

HUGHES TO ADDRESS PLATTSBURG CAMP

Small Crowd on Hand When Candidate's Car Arrives at Louisville, Ky.

By PERRY ARNOLD.
LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 5.—Only the usual railroad station crowd was on hand here today when Charles E. Hughes' car was backed in. There were no cheers or other signs of enthusiasm. The candidate is en route to Lexington, Ky., where he will speak today.

A. T. Hart, in charge of Western headquarters of the national committee, got aboard for a conference with the nominee and the two remained in the Governor's private car during the half-hour wait.

It became known today that the nominee is planning to address one of the usual railroad station crowds to take a morning stroll.

Before the candidate's car left the station a band straggled into the train shed and by playing Southern melodies evoked cheers in which were blended cheers for Hughes.

The original plan had been for Hughes to make a train speech, but apparently, this idea was abandoned because a crowd was missing. The candidate did not show himself for some time.

NATIONAL TRAINING GIRLS HOLD CIRCUS
Silent Drama, Chariot Race, and Ball Game Make Up Program.

The mother did not shriek nor scream, though her child was being abducted before her eyes.

For this was the "silent drama," and the eleven white girls out at the National Training School for Girls put it on just as it might have been seen on the screen.

The "scenario" was only a part of the Labor Day program at Conduit road and the District Institute With Miss Eleanor Brown, prohibition officer, for ringmaster, the girls gave a circus.

A clown, three elephants, a giraffe, a tight-rope walker, two Japanese jugglers, and "the wildest jack rabbit in captivity" made up the attractions for this act. Then there was a chariot race between two inter-girl teams.

The entertainment closed in more serious vein, with an allegorical play, written about the subject of child labor. Earlier in the day girls of the Administration building beat the girls of the Preparatory building in baseball, by 18 to 17.

Among the guests for the circus and "scenario" and the rest of the afternoon program were Mrs. Newton D. Baker and her three children, Dr. A. J. M. Kelway, Chapin Brown, Dr. and Mrs. Hugh A. Brown, and Mrs. Frederick W. Brown.

RECRUITING OFFICER IS YET UNCHANGED

Lieutenant Johnston Has No News of His Relief.

Lieut. L. L. Johnston is still in charge of recruiting in the city, despite rumors that he has been succeeded by Captain Elias. Lieutenant Johnston, at the Ninth street station, this morning, said that he had received no official intimation of his relief.

The recruiting stations were closed most of Monday, because it was a legal holiday. No recruits were taken into the fold of the organized militia in the short time the offices were open, although there was one applicant for the ranks of the First Separate Battalion. He was rejected.

BUSY SCENES AS CROWDS GATHER FOR TROUSER SALE

Friedlander's Store at 428 Ninth Street Scene of Wild Excitement.

Thousands of pairs of Trousers, crowded under one roof and thrown to the public without regard to worth. That's the whole explanation of the vast crowds that have been assembling at Friedlander Bros.' Store, at 428 Ninth street.

A phenomenal sale is in progress, in which thousands of pairs of trousers have been offered the public at virtually any price. No regard is made of the actual value. Every popular weave and pattern to match almost any odd coat, every wanted size and all the new and more conservative models are to be had in this sale.

The sale includes four lots which for the convenience of customers is graded as follows:

Trousers sold up to $3.00 now $1.98; trousers sold up to $3.00 now $2.45; trousers sold up to $5.50 now $3.18; trousers sold up to $6.50 now $3.98.

As the above heading would indicate, the trousers are going with astonishing rapidity, and the wise man will make it a point to get in early while the collection is still large. Keep these three things in mind: Make haste—to Friedlander's—428 Ninth street northwest.—Adv.
